TOI announces clinical and financial accountability for MaxHealth Oncology Care in 5 Florida Counties

CERRITOS, Calif., March 14, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Oncology Institute, Inc. (NASDAQ: TOI), a leading value-based oncology group, and MaxHealth, an innovative leader in value-based primary care, have announced a comprehensive new agreement. Under this full-risk arrangement, TOI will assume clinical and financial responsibility for all oncology care provided to patients in Pinellas, Hillsborough, Polk, Broward, and Miami-Dade Counties. This innovative payment model aligns seamlessly with MaxHealth's existing value-based care agreements with large managed care organizations.

"We are excited to strengthen our partnership with MaxHealth, a distinguished primary care organization," expressed Dr. Daniel Virnich, TOI's Chief Executive Officer. "MaxHealth's outstanding reputation in care coordination and services harmonizes perfectly with our commitment to outstanding community-based oncology. We are confident that our care model is well-suited to deliver exceptional care to their patients."

TOI employs an outcomes and quality-based incentive model to enhance patient satisfaction and clinical results. By bringing cutting-edge cancer care to the community setting, TOI is transforming the delivery of specialty care.

"We are thrilled to collaborate with TOI to offer best-in-class cancer care for our patients," added Dr. Paul Kaplan, Chief Medical Officer of MaxHealth. "TOI shares our commitment to personalized care and patient satisfaction – we know our patients will be in good hands."

About The Oncology Institute
